

on air

FEST

SCHEDULED PROGRAMMING
ACAST LOUNGE

DAY ONE FRIDAY
MARCH 2

ALL DAY - LOBBY
ACAST: AUDIO LOUNGE

The Acast Audio Lounge hosts programming from 9:00 AM – 7:00 PM daily. Streaming live during the festival at onairfest.com.

09:00 - 10:00
CURATED PLAYLIST BY
ASHBURN DAVIS

10:00 - 11:00
THE CINEMATIC SEX SCENE THAT CHANGED YOU

Radio host and writer Ashley C. Ford talks with guests about the moment when they saw something on screen that opened up an entire world of sexual consideration to them.

11:00 - 12:00
FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Restaurateur Andrew Tarlow, of Diner, Marlow & Sons, Reynard and more, has been redefining culinary in Brooklyn for over 15 years with a unique blend of style, integrity and innovation. Listen as Andrew is joined by Matt Duckor, the Executive Producer of Bon Appétit Magazine and Epicurious.

12:00 - 02:00
ACAST LISTENING EXPERIENCE

02:00 - 03:00
CURATED PLAYLIST BY
ASHBURN DAVIS

03:00 - 04:00
BUILDING THE BEST PODCAST
STORY STRUCTURE EVER (OR, WHAT TO DO WITH ALL THAT TAPE)

Kristen Meinzer (Director of Nonfiction Programming, Panoply Media and Co-host, By The Book) and Julia Barton (Story Editor, Panoply Media) will describe how writing and audio work together to tell a great story... and how the best writing helps you to make the best use of your tape. For examples, we'll talk about three very different shows: By The Book (a comedic reality show in podcast form), Empire on Blood (an investigative podcast which started with seven years of raw tape), and Revisionist History (an episodic deep dive podcast which features a mix of reporting and opinionated narration).

04:00 - 05:00
MUSIC AS DECAY, MUSIC AS ARTIFACT

A conversation about music as artifact of a history and place. An investigation in how music can disjoint time, space, and memory. A meditation on how the tapes or records we collect decay and the literal mechanics/technology are decomposing. Featuring Salome Asega, GENG, Carl Chen and Derek Schultz.

05:00 - 7:00
THE UPGRADE PODCAST LIVE

Tips and tricks to help you live your best life featuring Jill Abramson, former Executive Editor of New York Times, hosted by Alice Bradley and Melissa Kirsch.